

Jeanette Wilson

Greetings to all my friends; it's me, Jeanette Wilson from "What's Holding You Back," and I am so excited to be re-connecting with you again. For some of you it has been a really long time since we have re-connected so let me reintroduce myself. Most of you remember that I started in Pennsylvania and eventually made the move to Phoenix, Arizona. I still make myself available for long distance Clearings, Healing, Readings and Channelings. With time and my practice, the experiences I have gained have increased my ability to help us move forward. We are living in unprecedented times and we all need help and guidance.

My Clearings are a wonderful tool and over the years I have helped myself and many others. I do want to share with you another incredible discovery, it's Bio Source Naturals by naturopath, Lezlie Cebulski; her holistic products naturally help heal the body, mind and spirit. Bio Source Naturals are powerful flower essences, sprays, oils and inhalers. Lezlie's amazing products are not imports and are created by her. I use Bio Source Naturals and so do my clients; we have several years of positive outcomes from Lezlie's products. My favorite Essential Oil Blends are Peace, Money Magnet, and Grounding which are very powerful for weight loss and clearing generational patterns.

I am so thrilled that Lezlie is offering these amazing products on my website www.jeanettewilson.net and I have dedicated a page for her products. Lezlie's biography and contact information are there for you to review. Please take the time to check out all the wonderful essences, sprays, inhalers, and get to know Lezlie and her website. If you have any questions, contact Lezlie or myself, we are happy to help.

Remember, I'm available for Clearings, Healing, Readings plus Channelings and would love to assist you on your life's journey. From Lezlie and myself, many blessings...

There is only love here for you...
